English Proficiency Testing

English Proficiency testing is administered by the Intensive English Program in conjunction with the Missouri S&T testing Center. Results will be forwarded to the Registrars, Admissions, and appropriate university administrators. There is a testing fee of $130.00. This fee will be added to your student billing statement. Please note that back packs, cell phones and jewelry will have to be checked in at the door and will be kept in a secure location. We therefore suggest, for your convenience, not to bring these items.

Michigan Test: A range scale of scores is provided by the English Language Institute of the University of Michigan to use as a guide in determining readiness for university coursework in these areas: reading comprehension, vocabulary and grammar. Our program requires a minimum score of 75 for this test.

Test of Listening Comprehension: The Listening Comprehension Test, prepared by the division of testing and certification, Michigan English Language Institute, is a 50-item tape-recorded listening test. It is a component of a battery of tests used to determine English language proficiency of non-native speakers of English who wish to pursue academic studies. Our program requires a minimum score of 78 for this test.

Test of Writing Proficiency: The Test of Writing Proficiency evaluates the proficiency/readiness of the skill indicated. This test is scored holistically on a scale of 6 based on a nationally-normed rubric. Our program requires a minimum score of 5 on this evaluation.
